Illustrated with extraordinary photography, AC/DC: Album by Album is an in-depth discussion of each of the band's 16 studio albums by prolific rock journalist Martin Popoff. Formed in 1973, AC/DC became one of the most popular and best-selling bands in rock history with their no-frills approach to loud, heavy, and sweat-drenched blues-based rock music.

It is a faithful transcription of the album 'Back In Black' by AC/DC. My only wish on transcription books in general is that the publisher use a spiral binding so the book will lay flat. Yea, that'll push the price up a bit but it would prevent having to break the spine in order for it to stay open to the page your trying to study.
